Explanatory notes/messages to class here:

Hello 2R! I hope you are all well and are enjoying the different activities I have prepared for you. Above are daily activities for you to work on while you are at home. I can see you are all enjoying Purple Mash and it is great to read comments from you as you hand in your work. I will respond to all comments so let me know how you're getting on. On Friday this week, we will try a new activity on Purple Mash which is called 2Write. This is a collaborative document that everyone will be adding too so I hope it works well.

Stay safe and relax too!

Miss Richmond 😊

Story plan template

Beginning: Where is the story set? Which characters are in your story? What are they like?

Build up: What do the characters do that could cause a problem?

Problem: What goes wrong?

Resolution: How is the problem fixed?

Ending: How does the story finish? Is it a happy ending?

The diagram consists of a central illustration of a mountain with a green base and a white snow-capped peak. Five rectangular text boxes are arranged around the mountain, each containing a label and several horizontal lines for writing. The boxes are labeled as follows:

- Beginning: Located at the bottom left, containing five horizontal lines.
- Build up: Located to the left of the mountain's peak, containing five horizontal lines.
- Problem: Located at the top center, above the mountain's peak, containing five horizontal lines.
- Resolution: Located to the right of the mountain's peak, containing five horizontal lines.
- Ending: Located at the bottom right, containing five horizontal lines.
